

ADDENDUM

Armed Forces Recruiters Access to Student Information (See Page 38 of this Handbook)

You have a right to request that student information, requested by armed forces recruiters, be withheld unless released by your signature.

The No Child Left Behind Act and the National Defense Authorization Act require that school officials provide military recruiters with student information including names, addresses, and telephone numbers. Parents and students of majority age have a right to request that their information be withheld unless released by their signature. Where students or their parents do not request their information be withheld, the school is required to release information to military recruiters. If you wish to request this information be withheld from military recruiters, please complete this form and return it to the school by October 1st.

I want student information about my child, including name, address and telephone information, to be withheld from armed forces recruiters unless released by my signature.
